

THE HORNET 1964

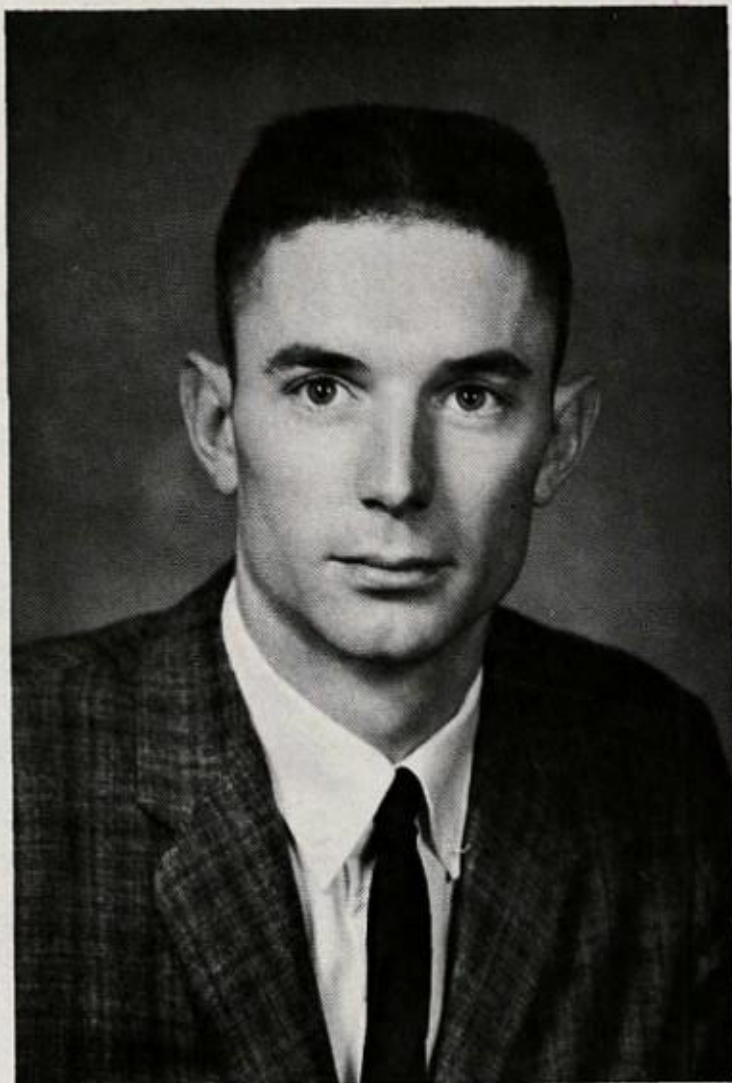

David Smith

Dedication

We, the Seniors of 1964, wish to dedicate THE HORNET to Coach "Nick" Dolloff in grateful recognition of his guidance, counseling, and untiring patience.

To him we owe a great deal for the growth of our minds and characters as well. We hope that future seniors will benefit as much from his instruction as we have.

On April 10 we presented our senior play, "Sing for Your Supper." The Seniors were the honored guests at a prom held on April 18, at the Stephenson Hotel in Falls City, Nebraska. The theme of the prom was "April Showers". Our Senior sneak trip was from May 6-9 in Estes Park, Colorado. Our Baccalaureate was held on May 17, Class Night on May 19, and Commencement on May 22. The class chose the red rose as their flower, red and white as their colors, and their motto is "Forward ever, backward never."

This has been the history of the Class of 1964. As we look back with fond memories we will long recall, among other things--the morning assemblies, basketball games, school parties, and the long hours of hard study.

Freddie at Kewanee. On Friday, September 13, we initiated the Freshman class and then gave a history lesson and singing party at Brewster Springs in the morning. JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Hamlin Junior Class presented their play, "All On Account of Polly", on October 26, 1962, in the high school auditorium. The three-act comedy was written by Harry L. Newton and takes place on Hazel Beach, Long Island. The Beverly family had been spending money faster than the head of the house could earn it. He tries to make his family see the necessity of economy and warns them of the inevitable crash impending. Instead of heeding him, however, his warning is greeted with sneers and criticism.

Into this clouded atmosphere of selfishness, deceit, and false show comes Polly Perkins, Mr. Beverly's ward. Her heart and understanding are as big as all outdoors and her eternal optimism and good will soon assert themselves. Through Polly's influence we see the better instincts of the Beverly family and their friends come to the surface. They realize that money is not everything, that social position and false friends do not constitute happiness and that Polly Perkins is a wonderful little person.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"SING FOR YOUR SUPPER"

On April 10, 1964, the senior class presented their play, "Sing for Your Supper." The play, a three-act comedy, was written by Anne Coulter Martens. The plot concerns a bobby sox brigade who suspect that the new music teacher is the mystery radio crooner, and they all swoon at his feet. Only Susan, who is "nice and sensible," is not interested. However, the person who interests the music teacher is "nice and sensible" Susan. He asks her to pretend she's engaged to him in order to stand off the rest of the crowd. Susan agrees and later becomes really interested. But two of the boys, disgusted with the crush that all of the girls have on the music teacher, start a rumor that he is engaged to three of the bobby soxers. Susan is heartbroken when she finds out.

To make matters worse, a girl reporter comes snooping around with a photographer, and a fast-talking girl from an advertising agency is also in pursuit. Stephen wants only to square matters with Susan. But he has to face publicity about his crooning, and it is important that he continues to croon, for this will finance his career as a serious musician. After a gay whirl of complications, the play ends on a happy note. Members of the cast include the following:

Mr. Piper, who thinks he's boss.....	Lloyd Webber
Mrs. Piper, who knows she's boss.....	Shirley Byer

CLASS PROPHECY

"Good evening, this is Walter Cronkite with the CBS Evening News."

Miss Betty Johansen, noted lion tamer for the Barnum and Bailey Circus, has just returned from an African safari. Last Friday she spoke before an audience of 2500 and explained to the group that she hoped to conquer all the African jungles by 1985. Miss Johansen firmly believes that civilization will come to the wilds of Africa within the next ten years, and she wants to be among the first to experiment with the venture. In her lecture, Miss Johansen made it clear that the very popular American idea that elephants wear red and green sneakers is entirely false; they wear blue ones!

Professor Dale Schawang of Long Beach, California, has invented a portable automatic answer-finder for General Electric. The new answer-finder will be sold at the low, low cost of two and one-half billion dollars and is ideal for home use. Dr. Schawang, who was valedictorian of his senior class at Harvard University, is now working on a disposable automobile which will be used for transportation on Mars.

Miss Virginia Owen, assistant to the Professor of History at the University of Washington, has been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor by the President of the United States. Miss Owen, who recently announced that she plans to tour Russia in the near future, received the medal for her revision of the dictionary. The new dictionary will involve the use of twenty-four different languages and contains the shorthand strokes for every one of the 50,000 terms listed. Miss Owen is a graduate of Vassar and Hamlin Rural High School, Hamlin, Kansas.

Sharon Steele, member of the F.B.I. and stationed in Washington, D.C., is a special agent for Robert F. Kennedy. Just yesterday she captured the world's most wanted criminal, Oilcan Harry, who has strangled twenty women. Sharon was assigned to act as his girlfriend. She admits that she was a little scared but said it was her duty to do this. Just when Oilcan Harry was getting ready to strangle her, she just used a little judo on him and knocked him flat on his face. For this great feat, Sharon was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for her bravery. Incidentally, Oilcan Harry is serving ninety-nine years in Leavenworth.

Commander Glenda Rison has just set a world's record for being the first woman submarine commander to stay under water for two years. Commander Rison and her fleet of six submarines reported that they have discovered a colony of mermaids under the South Pole.

Professor Dale Schenck of Long Beach, California, has invented a portable automatic answer-finder for General Electric. The new answer-finder will be sold at the low, low cost of two and one-half million dollars and is ideal for home use. "John the Googenhan," formerly John Rudder, has just returned from England after recording four hit records. His best selling record, "Gerri Stole My Heart," has been the Number One Tune in England for the past three weeks and is climbing high in the United States. The British were greatly influenced by his Caesar haircut since they have been wearing Beatle haircuts for the past fourteen years. His next appearance will be to star on the "Get Rich Quick" television quiz show.

Miss Linda Blecha and Fred Astaire, Jr., world famous dancers, are off on a trip to Alaska. There they plan to teach the penguins how to dance. They believe penguins will make excellent dancers. When they are trained, Mr. Astaire and Miss Blecha plan to tour the world with the dancing penguins.

Last night reporter Harry Reasoner interviewed Sgt. Kathy Wikle of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at a special news program over station WET in the Yukon. Sgt. Wikle told of her adventurous life living in and around the North Pole. She told newsmen and cameramen to be careful when they arrived to film the special program because she owned fifty-nine ferocious beagles. Sgt. Wikle uses the beagles as a team for her dog sled. They also told reporters in the special program that she usually goes to the near-by village only approximately once every four years; but, she doesn't mind as long as she has her dogs to keep her company.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hinton are the proud parents of four boys and two girls, the first sextet ever born in the world. Mr. Hinton and his wife, the former Barbara Gerlt, reside on a farm near Hamlin, Kansas. The babies, who have not yet been named, are reportedly doing fine. Mrs. Hinton's first words after hearing that she now had six infants were, "Maybe we can keep up with Bruce and Marcelle after all."

Miss Shirley Byer was appointed Supreme Court Justice after one of the members of the court died last week. Chief Justice Earl Warren said today at a press conference, "I believe that Miss Byer will measure up to her ideals if she is only given a chance." Since she is the first woman Supreme Court Justice, she will have many trials to face in the coming years. Miss Byer accomplished this amazing feat in her thirty years of life. President Margaret Chase Smith appointed Miss Byer because of her honorable reputation in Washington, D. C., as a parole officer.

Lloyd Webber was recently hired as a new trapeze artist for the Ringling Brothers Circus. Last weekend he was practicing a new act with his fifth wife, Maggie the Great. He flew through the air and tried to catch Maggie by her eye lashes. Unfortunately, this wasn't successful. It's anybody's guess who his next wife will be.

Miss Rosemary Shannon, who went into nurses' training after her high school graduation, has recently transferred to the California Hollywood Actors' Hospital. Last night she and Dr. Zorba announced future marriage plans at a large party in Los Angeles. After their marriage, Miss Shannon says that she and Dr. Zorba will work together to establish a hospital for armadillos.

Jere Sherrer became world famous today as the first Coast Guardsman to specialize in tattooing. Two weeks ago Jere was appointed head tattoo maker of the highest office General Tattoos. Yesterday he was appointed by the Chief of Staff to put one of his fine tattoos on his chest. After the tattoo was made, the Chief thought it looked grotesque, so he demanded Congress to pass a law to stop tattooing. He further demanded that Jere remove the tattoo from his hairy chest because of the terrible itching. If this law is passed, Jere will become a machinest mate on a Coast Guard Cutter.

CBS Roger Mudd of Washington recently interviewed Miss Sue Myers who purchased the Flying "S" Ranch two days ago. We asked Roger to report on his interview and here is his synopsis: "The Flying "S" Ranch is approximately one-fourth the area of Texas. I asked Miss Myers why she has taken up the fine art of bull fighting, and she explained it like this: 'Yesterday as I was walking in a small wooded area, one of my bulls suddenly came charging out at me. I was wearing a bright red cape and the bull started pawing the ground so I decided that maybe I'd better defend myself. The bull charged, and I twirled my cape. Before I knew it, I found myself enjoying this dangerous pastime so I joined the Mexican Matadors Association.' Thank you, Roger, for that interesting interview.

Designers from Paris, France and other world fashion centers are keeping a close watch on Mrs. Ray Soden. Mrs. Soden, the former Barbara Johansen lives in the Everglades in Florida where her husband makes a living by wrestling alligators. Barbara says it bothers her when he brings in an old mean one, but she usually overcomes this by selecting those nasty old mean ones for her profitable business. Barbara makes purses, shoes, and suitcases out of alligator, and they are becoming quite an attraction in Paris.

"And that's the way it is, Tuesday, May 19, 1978. This is Walter Cronkite. Good night."

Mrs. Rosemary Shannon, who went into nursing after her high school graduation, has recently transferred to the California Hospital, Los Angeles. Last night she and Dr. Jones announced their marriage. After their marriage, Mrs. Shannon says that she and Dr. Jones will work together to establish a hospital for ex-convicts.

John Shorter became world famous today as the first Coast Guardman to specialize in fastboating. Two weeks ago John was appointed head of the motor of the highest office General. Yesterday he was appointed by the Chief of Staff to put one of his fine boats on his chest. After the boat was made, the Chief thought it looked grotesque, as he demanded Congress to pass a law to stop fastboating. He further demanded that John remove the boat from his chest because of the terrible feeling. If this law is passed, John will become a mechanical man on a Coast Guard Cutter.

USS Roger Mudd of Washington recently interviewed Miss Sue Myers who purchased the flying "S" Ranch two days ago. We asked Roger to report on his interview and here is his synopsis: "The flying 'S' Ranch is approximately one-fourth the size of Texas. I asked Miss Myers why she has taken up the fine art of bull fighting, and she explained it like this: 'Yesterday as I was walking in a small wooded area, one of my bulls suddenly came charging out at me. Before I knew it, I found myself enjoying this dangerous pastime so I joined the Western Riders Association.' Thank you, Roger, for that interesting interview.

Last night from Paris, France and other world fashion centers are passing a close watch on Mrs. Ray Sobel, Mrs. Sobel, the former Barbara Johnson lives in the Everglades in Florida where her husband makes a living by wrestling alligators. Barbara says: 'It bothers her when he brings in an old man one, but she usually overcomes this by selecting those nasty old men ones for her profitable business. CLASS OF 1964

SENIOR POEM

It was many and many a year ago,
In a school house on the plain,
That sixteen bright and cheery students
Became a teacher's pain.

But graduation now is here,
As you can plainly see,
And we shall try to tell you how
Our future years will be.

To be a teacher is Kathy's dream,
A good one she hopes she'll be,
We know she'll make the children mind,
And we give them our sympathy.

Jere Sherrer was quite a guy;
He liked the Coast Guard best,
And when it came to sailing,
He always passed the test.

Linda Blecha could take her pick
Of the airplanes on which she flew.
She always managed to pick the one
With a very good-looking crew!

Sue is now a movie star.
She's considered one of the great.
She won five oscar awards last year,
But claims it's only fate.

Off to Topeka Sharon did go
To fulfill her greatest ambition.
And there she met her Only One--
He also was a beautician.

Barbara Gerlt, as you probably know,
Was the first of the class to be wed.
From school work and dating she did go
To cooking and making bread.

Rosemary was the friendly type
To nursing she did run,
And all the patients loved her best
Because she's full of fun.

SENIOR FORM

It was many and many a year ago,
In a school house on the plain,
That sixteen bright and cheery students
Became a teacher's train.

But graduation now is here,
As you can plainly see,
And we shall try to tell you how
Our future years will be.

To be a teacher is Kathy's dream,
A good one she hopes she'll be,
We know she'll make the children glad,
And we give them our sympathy.

John Shetter was quite a guy,
He liked the Coast Guard best,
And when it came to sailing,
He always passed the test.

Linda Biech could take her pick
Of the airplanes on which she flew,
She always managed to pick the one
With a very good-looking crew.

She is now a movie star,
She's considered one of the great,
She won five Oscar awards last year,
But claims it's only fate.

Off to Topois Sharon did go
To fulfill her greatest ambition,
And there she met her Only One--
He also was a dentist.

Barbara Gerlt, as you probably know,
Was the first of the class to be wed,
From school work and dating she did go
To cooking and making bread.

Rosemary was the friendly type
To nursing she did turn,
And all the patients loved her best
Because she's full of fun.

Betty became a beautiful bride
After her years of school.
And now she's changing diapers
And teaching the Golden Rule.

Barbara was Betty's sister;
She, too, became a wife.
She's dedicated to keeping house,
And having a happy life.

Dale went out to see the world.
He joined the Navy team--
He had a girl in every port.
Now, don't you think he's keen?

Shirley became a pianist;
She played at Carnegie Hall.
She traveled all over America,
And she's really having a ball!

Now Glenda you'll find at Washington
In a White House office is she.
She sits upon the President's lap--
And a happy man is he!

Virginia was a secretary
To Frank Sinatra's son,
And when the work was finally done,
To Junior she would run.

A popular singer John became.
He thrilled five million fans.
To all the girls around the world,
He was a Special Man.

A famous lawyer Lloyd wanted to be,
As famous as Louis Nizer.
He's never lost a single case,
And you'll find him all the wiser.

Mrs. Vonderschmidt retired in style,
But decided it was too dull,
So now she's living in Mexico
Fighting with many a bull.

Now, Mr. Hedges is full of zest;
He's always on the beam.
He tries to do his very best,
For that's his life-long dream.
